

I would like to encourage the FCC to limit the number of broadcast channels that can be owned by any one company within a given reception area. A diverse population must be represented by a diverse media.

Thank-you.